

MY LOVERS GHOST EP - ALL LYRICS

By Carla Werner

SECOND BEST

I make my bed, is what you said I don't know why, I don't believe it just yet My love was just, you followed lust but I'm not in love, cos its not enough

And I never guessed, that I would be second best And the fruit don't fall far from the tree, what will be will be Covered in dust, whats left of us and it didn't fit, in the end you come to it And like a stone, we carry on Long after bones, are buried and gone

And I never guessed, that I would be second best Cos the fruit don't fall far from the tree, and what will be will be But I want to know, do you think of me?
Cos the gardens overgrown, and soon we will be and soon we will be

FREE

I'm free, I'm free

One time down get up off the ground
Two time down, turn around Three and Four walk out the door Not coming back don't beg for more

I'm free, I'm free

You got me in a spin again
You got me round like a sea of sin Got holes in me the size of the sea
Not coming back stop begging me

I'm free, I'm free

Cos I love you till the sun go down but I can't stand you bringing me down Hope some day you think of me and how I set myself free from thee

I'm free, I'm free

(music)

I gave you silver, gave you gold almost gave you all my soul got a little bit left for me, take it now got to be free

I'm free, I'm free

My mama said to put you down She can't stand me getting round with half of who I ought to be take it now got to be free

I'm free, I'm free
Good god I'm free

MY LOVERS GHOST

While we're on the surface, lets swim away from this my lovers ghost still exists
I know I talk in riddles but what else can I do?
When all I loved still insists whoa

While we're on the surface lets swim away from this
my lovers ghost still exists I'm not the one to dream up happy endings with my love is broke my heart resists

I want to follow the sun, the chosen ones
and live among their dreams
I want to shine for every smiling face that I am blessed to see...

While we're on the surface, lets swim away from this
my lovers ghost still exists
I know I talk in riddles but what else can I do?
When all I loved still insists oh oh oh oh

I want to follow the sun, the chosen ones
and live among their dreams
I want to shine for every smiling face

to be..

SOMETHING

They're playing our favorite song down the street from where I live and I can't help but sing along remembering how you did

oh and what was that line? you used to sing it overtime when the song stopped playing you were quietly saying something

The night of sweet praises and softly spoken words Heavenly phrases, we were so high on the herb You put into the kissing the warmth I was missing and wrapped me around your heart I wanted to stay forever that way, but I could see in your eyes you did not

oh and what was that line? you used to sing it overtime
when the song stopped playing you were quietly saying something (something)

ah aha aha oh oh

And I said come and see me sometime, I don't expect the world just a bit of your sunshine you just smiled and put on your jacket and kissed away my hope and floated out the door like a note

Did you miss me? Did you ever get the urge to wanna kiss me cos all I could think while you were gone was whose the lucky one lying in the sun of warm warm heart and cold cold eyes

I never saw your face again or watch you come through my door
and still to this day I go back there, but I still can't recall that line...

You used to sing it every time when the song stopped playing you were quietly saying something, something oh oh oh oh oh o

Something is better than nothing I used to tell myself better to have loved than watch it happen to someone else lying in my bed, you'd float into my head and switch me on like a light to the love that was right cos you showed me what love could be, so simple in all its complexity you said love is unconditional, and letting go is pivotal to the soul that needs to be free but you were talking about you and not me

I never saw your face again
or watch you come through my door
and still to this day I go back there,
but I still can't recall that line...

You said it every time, when the song stopped playing you were quietly saying something something, something, something ah ahahaha
Something, something, something
ah ahahaha

They're playing our favorite song down the street from where I live
And I can't help but sing along, remembering how you did

YOU CAN FOLLOW ME

The road it lay before me but I can't see the way that I should go My heart is like a warrior, even when my step begins to slow
You can follow me, I will find a way ahead we can go
I do my best to shelter you, and keep you warm from all the pain you know
Oh oh

Oh, come on child, cos by and by Everythings gonna be alright

You bring out the best in me and I will fill the laughter in your eyes
And if I can you know I will fit you with the wings you need to fly Cos you can follow me I will find a way ahead we can go
I do my best to shelter you and keep you warm from all the pain you know
Oh Oh

Everythings gonna be alright

Oh baby baby don't you cry
I'll make it better I promise to try
Oh baby baby don't you cry
You'll begin again, you will, begin

SHINE FOR YOU

The stars will shine for you, for you, for you And love is blind for you, for you, for you Its moving like the sea, in you, in me

And we will fly away, another day

The world is mine for you, for you, for you
And when the moon is high, your eyes will cry
But when the sun comes up, you will be loved

And when the moon is high, your eyes will cry
